

- Get 4 Free Preview Issues!
- Give the Gift of PEOPLE
- Magazine Customer Service

People

Can I Help You find your dream shade?

HOME NEWS PHOTOS STYLE RED CARPET VIDEO CELEBS MAGAZINE

Red Carpet Main Golden Globes Screen Actors Guild Grammys Academy Awards More Awards

2008 AWARDS SEASON

RED CARPET CONFIDENTIAL

SPONSORED BY L'ORÉAL PARIS

February 11, 2008

Outrageously VIP

The Most Expensive Perks Celebs Get!

Decadent cocktails. $10,000 spa retreats. See the season's sweetest luxuries!

SPONSORED BY

More Photos

18 of 22

PREVIOUS

NEXT

TUNES FOR TOTS

Every year, A-list parents flock to the Boom Boom Room gifting suite for unique kiddie goodies. This year's most coveted item? Name Your Tune's children's compilation. The 14-song CD is custom-made in three minutes and personalized for each child – to include songs that feature names like Suri, Apple and Shiloh. So while Mom and Dad are hitting the afterparties, the kids can host sing-a-longs with their babysitter. – Amy Elisa Keith

PREVIOUS

NEXT

RED CARPET NEWS

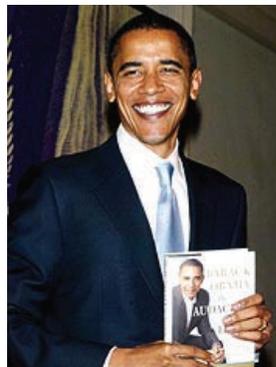

Obama Beats Clinton – at the Grammys

Originally posted 02/11/2008 10:00AM

Barack Obama got the better of Clinton – Bill Clinton, that is – in a different kind of run-off this weekend.

The Democratic presidential hopeful won the Grammy for best spoken word album on Sunday for the audio edition of his book, The Audacity of Hope: Thoughts on Reclaiming the American Dream. The Illinois Senator beat out two former presidents, Bill Clinton and Jimmy Carter, to claim the trophy. (Maya Angelou and Alan Alda also vied for the prize.)

READ MORE

JAN. 13	GOLDEN GLOBES
JAN. 27	SCREEN ACTORS GUILD
FEB. 10	GRAMMYS
FEB. 24	ACADEMY AWARDS 13 DAYS LEFT

Red Carpet ROCKS

Get an up-close look at the pricey gems on Madonna, Rihanna, Kate Walsh and more

SEE PHOTOS